FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS FOR CANDIDATES

Q. What is a Board of Education?

A. The province of Saskatchewan is divided into 28 geographical areas called school divisions; school divisions contain Kindergarten to Grade 12 schools. A board of education is a form of local government and has the legislative authority to govern the education services provided to children resident within the school division. Boards must consider various issues in making a decision, but in the end decisions are based on the best interests of all children in the school division.

Boards of education have an obligation to provide educational services and operate schools. Boards involve their communities by informing, listening, and considering the communities' values when making decisions.

The Education Act, 1995 - 85, 86, 87 and 88

Q. What is a “Trustee”?

A. An individual member of a board of education is sometimes referred to as a “trustee.” A trustee, acting individually, has no authority to make decisions. A trustee works as part of a team, the board of education. Only the board in public session has the power to make decisions that affect schools. In addition, School Community Councils are a form of local engagement which involves parents and the community in school improvement. The Councils are legislated by the Government to be in place for every school in Saskatchewan and must include elected and appointed members. For more information or to run for your school council, contact your school division office. The Education Act, 1995 - 140.1, 140.2

Q. How do I know if I’m eligible to run for a board of education?

A. The required qualifications for candidates for public and separate boards of education and the conseil scolaire fransaskois are outlined above in this document.

Q. Can I live in one school division and run in another?

A. No. The candidate must live in the same school division in which he or she will stand for election. Local Government Election Act, 2015 - 36(1)(d)(ii)

Q. Can I live in one sub-division and run in another?

A. Yes. However, while a candidate does not have to live in the sub-division in which they are running, all of their nominators must be from that sub-division. Local Government Election Act, 2015 45 and 67(3)(f)

Q. Can I be a candidate if I work for a school division or the Conseil des écoles fransaskoises?

A. Yes, but you must be placed on a leave of absence immediately upon your nomination. If elected, you will be deemed to have resigned from your employment on the day before the day you are declared elected. Local Government Election Act, 2015 - 26.1(3), 43(3) and 43(4)

Q. Can I be a candidate if I work for another school division?

A. Yes. There is no conflict of interest if your employer is a different Board of Education.

Q. Can I run for public school trustee if I am Roman Catholic?

A. It depends. You can run as a candidate for the public school board if you meet all of the qualifications outlined in this document. However, if you reside in an area where there is also a Roman Catholic Separate School Division and you are going to vote in the election for the separate school board, you will then be an “elector” in the separate school division and can no longer qualify to run in the public school election. You can qualify as an elector in only one school division. Local Government Election Act, 2015 - 36 and 42

Q. Can a non-Roman Catholic run for the Roman Catholic school board?

A. No. Only “electors” in the Roman Catholic Separate School Division can be candidates for election to the Roman Catholic Separate School Board. To qualify as an elector in that separate school division, the individual must declare that he or she is a member of the minority religious faith that established the Separate School Division. Local Government Election Act, 2015 - 36

Q. I pay taxes to the Roman Catholic school division in my area. Can I run as a candidate in the public school board election?

A. Yes. The issue of which school division you pay your taxes to is not related to your eligibility to vote or run as a candidate. To qualify to run for the public school board, you must meet certain criteria outlined in this document. Local Government Election Act, 2015 - 42 and 45

Q. My children attend school in a different school division than the one in which I want to run. Can I run for election in a different school division?

A. Yes. The school(s) your children attend is not related to your eligibility to run as a candidate. To qualify to run for the school board, you must meet certain criteria outlined in this document. Local Government Election Act, 2015 - 42, 45

Q. Can I run for the board of education and for another office (for example, city council or the provincial Legislature)?

A. Yes, but you cannot be nominated for more than one sub-division within a school division. Local Government Election Act, 2015 - 70(1)(c) and 70(3)

Q. Can a candidate who is running for the board arrange a public forum of candidates? Or should it be set up by another person who is not a candidate?

A. Yes, candidates can arrange public forums but it is preferable that a public forum be established by an independent third party or body. Candidates are not required to attend public forums.

Q. How do I get nominated to run for the board?

A. Interested candidates must complete a nomination form. These forms can be obtained from the returning officer for your school division. Candidates have until September 21, 2016 at 4 p.m. to submit the nomination form to the returning officer. If there are fewer candidates than vacancies, the returning officer will hold a call for further nominations.

You are required to include on your nomination form the signatures obtained from at least ten electors in the sub-division or at large area in which you plan to run. When you pick up your nomination form, discuss with the returning officer exactly what is needed for your nomination. Local Government Election Act, 2015 - 67, 78

Q. If I am successful, what will be the responsibilities of the board?

A. The key work of boards of education includes planning and developing policy to achieve positive results for students of the school division. The Education Act, 1995, prescribes the authority of boards of education. The Education Act, 1995 - 85, 86, 87, and 88

Q. What will be my term of office?

A. Boards of education serve a four-year term, so successful candidates elected on October 26, 2016, will serve until October of 2020. The Local Government Election Act, 2015 - 10

Q. How much time will I have to devote to being a trustee?

A. People often suggest that being a school board member involves "one meeting per month." Don't believe it! Trustees spend an average of six to ten hours per week on school board-related business.

In addition to regular board meetings, trustees participate in committee meetings, planning meetings and Saskatchewan School Boards Association events.

If a candidate is successful in the October election, there will be organizational meetings held by the new boards. The Saskatchewan School Boards Association Fall Assembly and AGM is November 13-15, 2016 in Saskatoon.

Q. Is there compensation for being a board member?

A. Yes. Rates are set by each individual board. The Education Act, 1995 - 81, 82, 83 and 84

ROLE OF A SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER

In order to continue Saskatchewan's tradition of education excellence, boards of education need the ideas, energy and commitment of women and men who want to do their best for students and their communities.

Locally elected school boards have a vital role in serving Saskatchewan's publicly-funded education system. The longest lasting and most fundamental responsibility of schools boards has been to bring the voice of the public to publicly-funded education.

If you decide to run for election, working as part of a board of education means you care about students, schools and communities. If you want to be part of leading the learning community and building a better community at large, you're taking a great first step!

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it's the only thing that ever has."

-Margaret Mead

A SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER IS . . .

COMMITTED

Successful school board members, or trustees, put the needs of the student first all of the time. Trustees run for office because they are committed to making things better for Saskatchewan students.

Boards of education remain deeply rooted in the belief that every child in Saskatchewan, regardless of where they live or their personal circumstances, must have the resources and supports they need to achieve and succeed. Collectively, the women and men who serve on Saskatchewan's school boards are committed to serving children, youth, parents and communities.

School board members, teachers, staff, administrators and Ministry of Education personnel – the "stakeholders in education" – have worked collaboratively and cooperatively to ensure students receive the best education possible. Education is important to our future and together we must address many challenges.

NOT NECESSARILY AN “EDUCATION EXPERT”

In order to serve, one need not be an “education expert”. The ideal school board includes members who are representative of all cultures and walks of life in the community. The role of the trustee is not to serve as a professional educator, or to act as the spokesperson for a particular interest group. Instead, the trustee must, to the best of his or her ability, represent the wishes of all parents, caregivers, students and others in their communities. Diverse backgrounds, experiences and voices can lead to better decisions.

WILLING TO WORK COOPERATIVELY

It is important to realize that a school trustee, acting individually, has no authority to make decisions. A trustee works as part of a team; only the school board in public session has the power to make decisions that affect schools.

An interest in your particular school may have prompted you to seek office. However, as a school trustee you are responsible for all of the schools in the division and school board decisions must be made accordingly. There is no room for “turf wars” in effective school boards. Many groups share an interest in education, however, only school boards have the legal authority and mandate to govern the school system. No other group in society has this responsibility.

AN EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATOR

The primary role of the school board member is to ensure the wishes of communities are reflected in the management and operation of schools. Trustees must be willing to listen to their communities about what they need and want from their schools. Trustees must also make the effort to ensure their communities are kept up to date on the plans and decisions of the board.

READY TO MAKE THE TIME

Trustees spend an average of six to ten hours per week on school board-related business. This includes board meetings but could also involve serving as a liaison to communities, representing the board at events, serving as the designated spokesperson, serving on committees, taking part in trustee professional development activities, and attending Saskatchewan School Boards Association events.

SUPPORTED BY YOUR PROVINCIAL ASSOCIATION

By virtue of the fact that their board is a member of the Saskatchewan School Boards Association (SSBA), successful candidates also gain access to the services and supports provided by the provincial organization.

For more information about the SSBA services and supports available, please visit: www.saskschoolboards.ca.

THE SCHOOL BOARD

In Saskatchewan there are different kinds of school divisions: large geographic divisions that combine an urban centre and expansive rural areas; large urban public divisions; the Conseil des écoles fransaskoises; northern school divisions; Roman Catholic separate school divisions; and, a Protestant separate school division. Every division however, is governed by a locally elected board of education.

Trustees, as members of boards of education, have many important responsibilities.

Some of these include...

Establishing the vision, priorities and overall educational plans for the school division by:

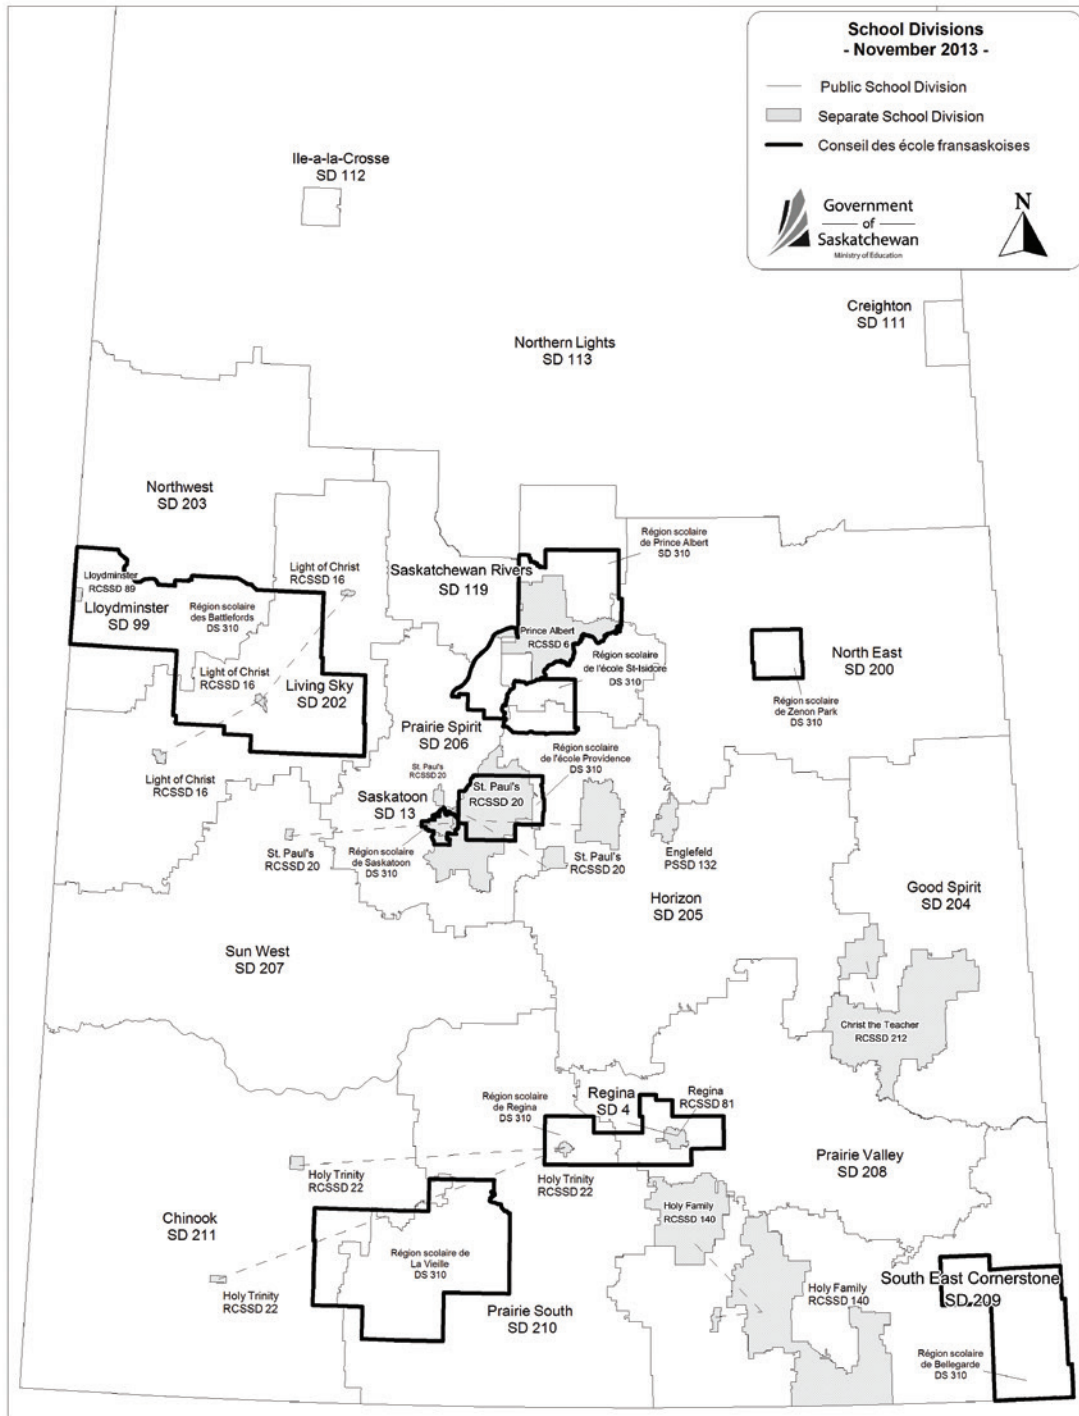

- Approving the educational program for the school division including special programming needs such as practical and applied arts, music and second language instruction.
- Overseeing and holding the division accountable for results.
- Determining financial priorities, adopting the annual budget, and ensuring accountability for school division expenditures.

Establishing the strategic policies of the school division by:

- Maintaining school facilities as healthy and safe places to learn.
- Working with the school division administration and in consultation with parents, caregivers, students, teachers and support staff.
- Supporting positive environments for students and staff.
- Communicating effectively by informing and listening to their communities.
- Advocating for education, ensuring that the educational needs of students are always considered first.

in my area. Do I have any options in respect of designation of education assessment purposes?

A. No. If you are not a member of the minority religious faith that established the separate school division in your area, you must designate to the public school division.

Q. I am a member of the minority religious faith that established the separate school division in my area. My spouse is not a member of the minority faith that established the separate school division. How do we provide for the school taxes which are payable on our property?

A. The Education Act, 1995, section 297(1) requires that "Property within a separate school division is to be assessed to the owner, and where property is held by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, each holder is to be assessed in proportion to his or her interest in the property in the separate or public school division of which he or she is a taxpayer for school purposes."

For example, if you are a Roman Catholic and own 50% of the assessed value of your property and your spouse owns 50%, you must designate 50% of the total school taxes to the Roman Catholic separate school division. Your spouse must designate 50% to the public school division.
