EXPANDING SCHOOL FOOD INFRASTRUCTURE IN REGINA

Regina Food for Learning is a non-profit, charitable organization dedicated to providing nutritious meals to schools, ensuring children receive the sustenance they need to thrive. Since 1988 they have served more than 3 million meals to thousands of students, contributing to their well-being and academic success.

With targeted investments in infrastructure, such as upgraded kitchen facilities, improved food storage, and more efficient distribution systems, this project has improved the availability of nutritious food in Regina Public and Catholic schools.
