

SSBA Guidelines for Entering Another Area of Politics:

If a member of the Executive submits candidate nomination paperwork with any federal or provincial political party, that member must take an unpaid leave of absence effective immediately.

If that member does not receive the party nomination, they may return to their Executive position, provided it has not been filled in a scheduled election.

If that member receives a party nomination, the member must resign, effective immediately. Notice of leave of absence or resignation must be provided in writing to the Executive.
